Welcome to Prath International – Redefining Excellence in Granite Export

At Prath International, we are proud to be a leading name in the global granite export industry, delivering unmatched quality and craftsmanship to clients across the world. With years of expertise and a strong commitment to excellence, we have established a robust presence in the granite industry by combining innovation, precision, and sustainability.

Operating from our key hubs in Palanpur, Ambaji, and Ahmedabad, we ensure seamless coordination and efficient services to meet the diverse demands of our esteemed clients. Our operations are strengthened by strategic ownership of granite mines in Telangana and state-of-the-art granite cutting and processing facilities in Karimnagar, Telangana. This integrated approach allows us to oversee the entire production cycle—from mining the finest quality raw granite to delivering meticulously crafted finished products.

Our Commitment to Quality and Sustainability

At Prath International, quality isn't just a goal; it's a guarantee. Every piece of granite we produce is meticulously inspected and processed to meet international standards. We are also dedicated to sustainable practices, ensuring that our mining and production processes minimize environmental impact while maximizing resource efficiency.

Our Products

We specialize in offering an extensive range of granite products tailored to meet various architectural, construction, and design needs. Whether it's premium slabs, tiles, or custom-designed granite pieces, our products are renowned for their durability, elegance, and timeless appeal.
